ICT IS SERIOUS ABOUT TIMEKEEPING

If you are late for any ICT interview – even one minute late – you will be turned away and not eligible for that class. For your own professional future, you must NEVER BE ONE MINUTE LATE.

Part 1: Getting to Know ICT

*Before you attend your first interview, it is important for you to get to know a little bit about ICT.
You must understand the seriousness of the business culture required to be chef.*

Tick each box that you think is correct.

- 1) ICT's primary mission is to provide training for people who have never worked or who have limited work experience. If a person has been able to repeatedly find a job, or a person has had over three months of previous hospitality training – or training in any employable field – there is a very low chance of being accepted to ICT.

TRUE

FALSE

- 2) Many people drink alcohol occasionally and on special occasions. Drinking is a bad practice when it comes to the business world. Therefore, no amount of drinking alcohol is permitted while I am an ICT student, including weekends, time off, or when I am at home.

TRUE

FALSE

- 3) Even though the ICT training will require all of my time and attention, I will still be able to have my usual friends and do all of the usual things I did before attending ICT.

TRUE

FALSE

- 4) Since ICT is free, they also give their students whatever they want. If I don't have transport money, or a phone, or money for data and airtime, ICT will give me those things.

TRUE

FALSE

- 5) The professional world is strict about timekeeping. Businesspeople are not interested in excuses like late taxis, no transport money, or personal issues at home. As training for the business world, ICT requires 100% on-time attendance – every single day – from all students.

TRUE

FALSE

- 6) Attending ICT is a personal decision to change my life for the better. The program will be very challenging. In order to grow and to succeed, I will have to face many personal challenges, face many fears, overcome some negative habits, and possibly question some of my beliefs.

TRUE

FALSE

- 7) ICT guarantees me a job. Even if I quit a job or get fired, ICT will get me another one.

TRUE

FALSE

- 8) ICT is not a quick fix to my financial problems. It takes many years of hard work, dedication, and climbing the ladder to become a respected, well-paid chef. Therefore, if I want to grow my career, I must always do my best, work my hardest, and put in very long hours. I also MUST be willing to make personal sacrifices – and I MUST learn to spend my money correctly.

TRUE

FALSE
